

The Clearwater Moment

The “Clearwater Moment” is a collection of environmental knowledge audio selections aired on WAMC to activate, educate, and inspire listening audiences. These three-minute episodes include fun, interesting stories and facts from our natural world, stories of people and their power to effect change, and how you can join them.

The selections in your House Party packet are as follows:

Golden River – Pete Seeger sings his beautiful Golden River and tells us how being on the Hudson inspired the words.

Laying the Keel – Pete Seeger recalls the very beginnings of a dream.

Long Haul – Sea Shanteys make hauling a 3,000 pound sail easier. Here’s one written by Pete and former captain Travis Jeffrey.

Sailor Superstitions – Clearwater captains share common sailing superstitions.

On Deck at Night – Former captain Travis Jeffrey tells about nighttime magic onboard the sloop.

Coral Bleaching – An environmental issue is introduced and explored.

Zero Waste – How can we cut our environmental impact?

Hudson River Girls – Teenagers from the second generation of Clearwater singers and activists extol the benefits of the Clearwater organization.

Music in the Classroom – Educator, Dan Einbender introduces a Clearwater mainstay.

Captain Kidd – Education Director, Dave Conover tells the story of Captain Kidd and the Hudson.

Select your favorite episodes to highlight at your House Party!