Chef Terrance Brennan and the Culinary Institute of America's President, Dr. Tim Ryan invite you to a unique culinary event, celebrating the bounty of the Hudson Valley and the return of The Hudson River's Tall Ship Clearwater to her waters!

Chef Brennan will bring together many of the Hudson Valley's premier chefs, local farmers and vintners at the CIA's scenic Hyde Park campus for a five-course dinner to benefit the sloop Clearwater. Five chefs will each present a special hors d'oeuvre to the accompaniment of bluegrass music by Albany's Jim Gaudet and the Railroad Boys overlooking the Hudson River, followed by dinner. Locally grown produce and meats contributed by area farmers will be featured in this farm-to-table tasting menu. The best Hudson Valley wines will be served.

The celebrated chefs cooking for us are:

- Chef Terrance Brennan - Michelin star rated and James Beard Society winner
- Chef Peter Kelly - Xaviars Restaurant Group, Piermont, Congers, Yonkers
- Chef Gianni Scappin - Market Street Restaurant, Rhinebeck
- Chef John Lekic - Le Express Bistro, Poughkeepsie
- Chef Stéphane Weber - Bocuse Restaurant, CIA

Clearwater's mission is to preserve and protect the Hudson River, its tributaries and related bodies of water. As an organization, Clearwater works to provide innovative environmental education programs, advocacy, and celebrations designed to expand people's experience, awareness and stewardship of this magnificent natural resource.

Participating in this unique gastronomical event will help Clearwater continue to bring its hands-on educational message of sailing, history, and environmental action to school children, young people and adults from the Hudson Valley.

This is a limited seating event, so be sure to get your tickets early.
