

Beachcombing

The beachcombing station is a student directed station. Cruise the beach and see what you can find. Many different subjects come up- human uses of the river, pollution issues, invasive species, history, and even pre-history. Create a found object sculpture, or individual mosaic. The above work of art is a culmination of one spring season collection of objects.