

SEINING

Find out what's living in your river. Clearwater educators aid students (5th and up) to bring in a seine net from the river. Students of all ages will help pick the net clean, gently removing the diverse Hudson River animals and bringing them to the aquarium for further exploration. All creatures are returned to the river at the end of the day. Waders are provided, but anyone fishing should be prepared to get wet. Bring extra clothes.