DSIP and Stakeholders

- From the beginning the Joint Utilities obtained significant input from a wide variety of stakeholders

- Continue to seek active stakeholder engagement through webinars, meetings, website updates, etc.

- Data sharing based on stakeholder use-cases

- Joint Utilities recently undertook a stakeholder survey to inform 2020 DSIPs

www.jointutiltiesofny.org
Plans for the 2020 DSIP

- Will follow the overall structure of the 2018 DSIPs
- Reference how clean energy policy and other state energy targets inform the development
- Provide links to other data repositories for referenced detailed information
- Highlight evolution where processes and/or methods have changed significantly
- Issue quarterly digital Joint Utility newsletter
- Continue holding stakeholder webinars
O&R Service Territory
Electric Vehicle Outreach & Education

O&R Hosted Ride and Drive Events
• Hosted 5 Events in various locations so far
• Over 1,000 test drives completed
• More than 15 models tested

O&R’s EV Advisor
• Guides our customers through the car buying experience
• Identifies potential cost savings
• Fuel Saving and Environmental Impacts
• Electric Vehicle Charging 101
• Charger locator
Electric Vehicle Rates & Incentives

Electric Vehicle Time of Use (TOU) Price Guarantee
• Allows customers to try our TOU rate plan for one year at a reduced monthly customer charge; risk free.

EV Supply Equipment Rebates
• Rebates on level 2 chargers when purchased on O&R’s Marketplace: myorustore.com

Nissan Leaf Rebate
• O&R Customers have access to an additional $5,000 incentive on a 2019 new Nissan Leaf – totaling a savings of over $12,500 on their vehicle purchase
Energy Storage Efforts

Energy Storage Penetration

• 0.3 MW of energy storage already installed in our territory

Gaining Experience and Knowledge

• Through non-wires alternatives and demonstration projects
  – Pomona and Monsey
  – Innovative Storage Business Model

Education and Outreach

• Internal, External, Municipalities, and First Responders
• Leveraging the O&R Marketplace