“The whole society we seek is one in which all live in brotherhood with each other . . .

It is a society that will not tolerate slums for some and decent houses for others, rats for some and playgrounds for others . . .

It does not make sense to say that we cannot afford to win the fight against hunger and poverty . . .

“This is about all of America and its problems. It is rats in the ghetto. It is a hungry child in a land of affluence. It is housing that is not worthy of the name; neighborhoods not fit to inhabit.

Our goal is a new American ethic that sets new standards for progress, emphasizing human dignity and well being.”

NIXON, STRESSING QUALITY OF LIFE, ASKS IN STATE OF UNION MESSAGE FOR BATTLE TO SAVE ENVIRONMENT

Presidential Terms Prospect For Peace Much Improved

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 23. The prospects for peace improved significantly today when President Nixon, in his State of the Union message, expressed optimism about the chances of a settlement in the Middle East. The president said that the United States would continue to work for a comprehensive and just peace in the region, but warned that progress would be slow and difficult.

Nigeria Increases Funds for Relief

ABUJA, Nigeria, Jan. 23. Nigeria today announced an increase in its relief funds for the people of Borno state, which has been hit by a severe drought. The government has set aside $100 million for emergency relief, including food, water, and shelter.

Yablonski Killing Depicted As Move To Bulk U.S. Jury

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 23. The murder of Senator Robert F. Kennedy in New York City last week was depicted today as a move to bulk up the U.S. jury system. Senator Kennedy had been a strong advocate of jury reform, and his death could lead to changes in the way juries are selected.

World's Garter White House Plan Calls for $6 Billion Federal Grant

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 23. The White House today unveiled a new plan for a $6 billion federal grant to support the preservation of the world's heritage sites. The plan, which is designed to help protect cultural and natural landmarks, would provide funding for conservation projects around the globe.

$10-Billion Asked for Clean Water

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 23. A bill introduced in Congress today asks for $10 billion in federal funds to finance the construction of new water treatment plants and the repair of existing ones. The legislation is intended to help address the nation's water pollution problems.
Every year, U.S. drinking water causes 20 million illnesses due to bacteria, viruses, and parasites.

Every year, U.S. recreational waters cause 90 million illnesses due to bacteria, viruses and parasites.
“We have subjected enormous numbers of people to contact with these poisons, without their consent and often without their knowledge. If the Bill of Rights contains no guarantee that a citizen shall be secure against lethal poisons . . . it is surely only because our forefathers, despite their considerable wisdom and foresight, could conceive of no such problem.”

“Clean drinking water and sanitation are essential to the realization of all human rights.”

United Nations Resolution 64/292, Declaration on the Human Right to Water and Sanitation,
“Each person shall have a right to clean air and water, and a healthful environment.”

The right to clean water demands the right to know if water is clean.
1972 Clean Water Act, Section 101:

It is the national goal that the discharge of pollutants into the navigable waters be eliminated \textit{by 1985};

It is the national goal that wherever attainable, an interim goal of water quality which provides for the protection and propagation of fish, shellfish, and wildlife and provides for recreation in and on the water be achieved \textit{by July 1, 1983};

It is the national policy that the discharge of \textit{toxic pollutants} in toxic amounts \textit{be prohibited};

It is the national policy that programs for the \textit{control of nonpoint sources} of pollution be developed . . . as to enable the goals of this chapter to be met.
